The Rape Crisis Center Announces Jessica Simpson as Headliner for 5th Annual Nina's Night Out Benefit Concert

LAS VEGAS – KTNV Channel 13 anchor Nina Radetich, Coyote Country 104.3, and The Palms Casino Resort have joined together to present the 5th annual Nina's Night Out on Thursday, September 18, 2008 at The Pearl, at the Palms Casino Resort. The annual fundraiser will feature multi-platinum singer/songwriter Jessica Simpson who will perform tracks from her soon-to-be released new country-format album, along with some of her popular favorites.

“Unfortunately everybody knows someone who’s been sexually assaulted,” says Radetich, who is the founder of Nina’s Night Out and who serves on the board of directors for The Rape Crisis Center. “Nina’s Night Out provides an evening of empowerment for survivors while raising money for an organization that provides much-needed service in our community.”

100% of the proceeds will benefit The Rape Crisis Center, a southern Nevada nonprofit that provides education, support and advocacy for victims of sexual assault and their families. “We are enormously grateful for the support that the community gives to this event,” said Louise “Lu” Torres, executive director for The Rape Crisis Center. “Nina’s Night Out raises both awareness and donations for our organization.”

A VIP cocktail reception at Moon nightclub, inside the Palms Fantasy Tower, will precede the concert from 5:00p.m. – 7:30p.m., which will include an appearance by Jessica Simpson, cocktails, hors d’oeuvres, both a silent and live auction, and goodie bags.

Ticket prices range from $47 - $60, plus any applicable box office fees, and can be purchased via phone through Ticketmaster, 702-474-4000, online at www.ticketmaster.com, or at The Pearl box office. Admission to the VIP cocktail reception at Moon can be purchased by calling The Rape Crisis Center at 702-385-2153.
